MISSOURI ELECTRIC CO-OP YOUTH PROGRAM MEANS EDUCATION AND FUN

Branson, Missouri – High school students from the Ozarks joined other high school students from across the state at the Missouri State Capitol to attend the Cooperative Youth Conference and Leadership experienced (CYCLE).

White River Valley Electric Cooperative (WRVEC) sponsored four local delegates to attend the conference: Miles Bacon (Ozark), Cayden Irons (Ozark), Nora Overstreet (Nixa), and Brett Roussell (Ozark).

The four-day annual event hosted by the Association of Missouri Electric Cooperatives (AMEC) was held in Jefferson City July 16- 19, 2024. AMEC provides the opportunity to Missouri sophomores and juniors to learn what it is like to serve in political leadership positions and get involved in community service, as well as the cooperative form of business.

CYCLE delegates took part in a variety of activities during the conference. The program included nationally known speakers and time at the Missouri State Capitol learning how a bill becomes a law and leadership activities.

“The CYCLE Conference 2024 was an unforgettable experience. I met new friends, had lots of laughs, and made many fun memories,” said Cayden Irons, Ozark High School. “I want to thank everyone at White River Valley Electric Cooperative for sponsoring this awesome opportunity for me.”
